750.00.....	1,000.00

What is a War Bond? It is a written promise by the United States Government to pay you the amount of money stated on the Bond.

What interest does my money earn? When held 10 years, Bonds yield 2.9 percent on your investment, compounded semiannually. You get back $4 for every $3.

When can I get my money back? Any time after 90 days from the date the Bond was issued. Naturally, the longer you hold the Bond, up to 10 years, the more money you'll get back. But you'll never get back less than you put in.

Can anyone cash the bond? Only the person or persons whose names appear on the Bond as owners.

"War's doing anything wrong—its trying to make some rubber."

Drawn for Office of War Information

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

When I drop into Sam Abernethy's store, I usually come away with something worth remembering.

Sam's our town's most successful storekeeper and he's not one to do much talking, unless he figures he's really got something to say.

Last evening he said plenty.

Stranger was in the store. And Ben Ryder, Homer Bentley and some others were talkin' about the scrap collection when this fellow sort of horned in...

"I hear these scrap collections are a lot a bunk," he says. "Fact of the matter is, this junk they're gathering ain't no use for makin' steel. Just a waste of time gettin' it together..."

At that point Sam steps in.

"Just a minute," he says, fixing him with a cold and steady eye. "May I inquire where you got them so-called facts?"

The stranger hems and haws, and Sam advances on him grim and unsmiling.

"Name your authority, sir," he says. And he wasn't kiddin'! "Tell me."

us, where did you get all this inside, private information?"

Well, sir, I never saw Sam so mad since Lem Martin's dog chased the cat into the pickle barrel. And I guess I never saw a man cravish out of a place fast as that fellow did.

Thinking it over afterwards, I came to the conclusion that Sam's got the real system for handling folks who throw facts and figures around free and easy like.

Firsttime, I've noticed there's some pretty fancy fact and figure jugglin' done by some of those who oppose the right enjoyed by millions of decent people to drink a friendly glass of beer when they want to.

Lately I've been asking these folks the same kind of questions that Sam asked that rumor-mongerin' stranger. Try it yourself, next time you hear anybody making derogatory remarks—whether it's against the war effort... or just against beer.

The Kitchen Front Is Important

Women who are joining up with Uncle Sam's nutrition program are performing a real service. They are putting, into practice right in their kitchens the better understanding of vitamin cooking, balanced diets, economical operation of ranges and refrigerators. They are not only contributing to the war effort but they are setting up good food habits that will make for healthful living at less cost—even after the war. For latest ideas on nutrition consult one of our Home Economists.
